BOX HOLDERS FOR OPERA ANNOUNCED

any Patrons of Former Sea sons Retain Old Seats in the Metropolitan.

TLL OPEN NOVEMBER 17

New Yorkers of Social Prominence Will Attend First Performance.

list of box holders for the seaopening at the Metropolitan Opera e Monday, November 17, was aned yesterday. The list follows:

Warren, Mrs. William Lowe Rice, odd Fridays. dies Iselin, E. H. Cary, odd Mondays, pening night; Mrs. George L. Rives, wen Mondays. Mrs. H. McK. Twombly, Mrs. William Douglas Sloans. d. C. Frick. d. C. Frick. d. P. Davison, Charles Steele, ai-ernately; William H. Porter, odd Chursdays; Thomas W. Lamont, even Chursdays; Mrs. C. H. Coster, odd Fridays.

hridge T. Gerry; John Aspegreen, bridge T. Gerry; John Aspegreen, ening night; Hamilton Carhartt, ondays; Mrs. Louis T. Hoyt, Wednes-yss; Frederic Courtland Pennied, uarsdays; Edward J. Berwind, Fridays.

George G. Haven; estate of John E. Parsons; E. H. Hooker, odd Mondays, opening night; Mrs. Joseph Pullitzer, even Mondays; Finley F. Shepard, Thursdays; Mrs. John E. Parsons, odd matinees.

John T. Pratt, R. Pulton Cutting, alternately; John J. Watson, Jr., even Mondays; Harold I. Pratt, even Wednesdays; Anson W. Burchard, odd Fridays; Mrs. J. J. Wysgng, even matinees.

Fridays; Mrs. J. J. Wysong, even matinees.

Mrs. Richard Cambrill, odd Mondays, odd Fridays; Mrs. J. Stewart Barney, even Fridays; Mrs. Peter Larsen, even Mondays; Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, even matinees.

Mrs. Vanderbilt; Mrs. George Vander-Mit, even Mondays; Charles E. Sampson, odd Fridays.

Henry R. Hoyt: Miss Rosina S. Hoyt; Rufus L. Patterson, even Mondays; E. Francis Hyde, Wednesdays.

J. P. Morgan.

Froderic A. Juilliard; Reginald de Koven, even Mondays; Mrs. Lydig, odd Wednesdays; Capt. W. C. Beach, odd Thursdays; Mrs. Frederick Pearson, Fridays.

Thursdays; Mrs. Frederick Pearson, Fridays.
August Belment, Lewis L. Clarke, August Belment, Lewis L. Clarke, Frank V. Storrs. Mondays. alternately: James Speyer, Fridays; Mrs. Clarence M. Hyde, odd matinees.
W. K. Vanderbilt.
Bestram H. Berden, Howard S. Borden, even Mondays. Thursdays, alternate matinees: Miss L. P. Bliss, Wednesdays, part matinees; C. N. Bliss, Jr., Fridays, part matinees; C. N. Bliss, Jr., Fridays, part matinees; William Fahnestock, Dr. Ernest Fahnestock, Dr. Clarence G. Campbell, Wednesdays, Fridays, alternate matinees.
Henry Clews, George J. Gould, alternately, her Frederic B. Pratt, syan

Henry Clews, George J. Gould, alternately.

O. H. Kahn; Frederic B. Pratt, even Mondays; James Shewan, Jr., Fridays; Walter Graeme Ladd, odd matinees. Walter P. Bliss, William Willis Reese, alternately; Morton L. Schwartz, odd Mondays, opening night; Henry Devereux Whiton, even Mondays; Dr. J. Henry Lancashire, odd Fridays. Miss Helen O. Brice; Charles B. Alexander, alternately; John Sanford, odd Mondays, opening night.
Ogdes Mills; Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.
W. Seward Webb; S. R. Gugsenheim, even Mondays; Albelt Cornell, Fridays; Mrs. James, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchlincloss, matinees.

Auchincioss, matinees.
Robert Walten Goelet; Henry Morgan
Tilford, Wednesdays.
William Ross Procton: Mrs. Edward
H. Close, even Mondays; Mrs. Arthur Ryls, odd Wednesdays; Mrs. Charles H. Senll, odd matinees: Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley, even matinees.
Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting, Walter
Dougias, even Mondays, odd Thuredays; Mrs. E. S. Reynal, odd matinees.
H. P. Whitney, Payne Whitney, alternately.

Grand Tier Box Holders,

Grand Tier Box Holders.

Dr. S. Weiskopf, Mondays;
Ernest T. Carter, odd Mondays; H. T.
Dunn, even Mondays.
Ferdinand F. Jeiks, the Rev. Henry V.
B. Darlington, even Mondays; Brackett
Barkley, odd Mondays; Brackett
Barkley, odd Mondays; Wassar College, matiness.
George B. Hurd, Mondays; the Scoville
School, Wednesdays; Comstock School,
Miss Foster's School for Grig, Fridays;
Miss C. E. Mason's School, matiness.
George G. Foster, Mondays; Miss C. E.
Mason's School, matiness.

orge G. Foster, Mondays, Saiss C. R., saon's School, matinees.
mes B. Dickinson, Mondays; E. E. tathey, Wednesdays; Robert Law, Fridays; J. Mercadante, matinees.
Dixon Ellis, odd Mondays; Karl iers, even Mondays; Lewis E. Piers, odd Wednesdays; Rollin P. Grant, son Wednesdays.

Thursdays; Mme. P. Skertens's School, Fridays.
Giulio Gatti-Casazza, all week.
B. G. Work, odd Mondays; J. Frank Nutting, even Mondays; Manton B. Metcalf, odd Wednesdays; F. Benedict, even Wednesdays; Mrs. A. F. Lauterbach, odd Fridays; Otto Frank, Louis Besrman, even Fridays; Cotto Frank, Louis Hesrman, even Fridays; William M. Pratt, Fridays; Mrs. H. C. Pritchitt, Mondays; Herman Levy, Ernest Levy, Wednesdays; Julius Keesier, Thursdays; Spence School, matinees.

Stall Box Holders.

Hall Box Holders.

Dr. A. Mozart Monse Lesser, Mondays; Miss Mary Campbell, Wednesdays; Miss A. May Condit, Miss Catherine S. Cendit, Edward A. Condit, Thursdays; John S. Hallenbeck, Fridays; Miss Marguerite Knox, matiness.

Prank Scott Gerrish, Mondays; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Otto Frankel, Mr. and Mrs. Loseph Moses, odd Wednesdays; Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sherlock, even Wednesdays; Brodle Gilman Highley, Thursdays; L. C. and R. G. Harry, Fridays; Misca Mary Olcott, matiness.

Elilot Averett, Mondays; Mr. and Mrs.

FERMIN EXTERMINATED VE GUARANTEE TARANTÉE EXTERMINATING COMPANY

O FIFTH AVE NY Phone YANBLT 2716 7-8

A. L. Auerbach, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Auerbach, Wednesdays; Samuel Bird. Thursdays; Eugene Mackay, Fridays. Mrs. Charles E. Sheppard, matinees. C. H. Ditson, Mondays; Samuel Wr. Reyburn, Wednesdays; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Phillipson, Thursdays; A. Portfolio, Fridays; A. H. Bull, matinees. Mrs. E. Juch Wellman, Mondays; Frank R. Ford, J. du Pratt White. Wednesdays; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Ginsburg, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Ginsburg, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Fisher, Mrs. Millard F. Ross, matinees. James Livingston Freeborn, Mondays; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Schenck, Wednesdays; M. L. Lisaberger, A. Wise. Thursdays; Armand Schmoll, Fridays; Henry Blank, matinees. J. Burling Lawrence, Fridays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, Tridays; Edmund E. Sinclair, matinees. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Herbert, Mondays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, Thursdays; Mr. and Mrs. Ad Icewitz, O'RYAN PRAISES ITS WORK

ENVOY'S WIDOW TO LEAVE.

Italy on Tuesday.

s. Willard Straight, Mrs. E. H. Haraan, Mrs. Edward B. Close, odd man, Mrs. Edward B. Close, odd man, Sulzer entertained at dinner this medays, opening might; Charles A. me, Wednesdays; C. T. Mathews, odd days; Philip Rhivelander, even Fritage of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Argentine Ambassador and Mrs. Le Breton, the Minister from the Serbs, mss. Croats and Slovenes and Mme. Grouitch, Assistant Secretary of State Phillips, M. and Mme. de Salis, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Miss Liv Nan-sen, guest of the Minister and Mme. Sul-ser, and Lieut, Jenny of the Legation

Lord and Lady Swaythling of Eng-land, who have been guests of the Min-ister and Mme, Grouitch, left here last evening for Boston, where they will spend a week with their son, who is in preparatory school for Harvard,

WEIHMAN-EMMONS.

New York Girl Becomes the Bride of Philadelphian.

ter of Mrs. Francis Robbins Emmons of 390 West End avenue, was married to Clifford T. Weihman of Philadelphia. astounding conditions in relation to the The Rev. Dr. S. De Lancey Townsend, manhood of America. In the first place, The Rev. Dr. S. De Lancey Townsend, rector, performed the ceremony. The bride entered the church with her cousin, James H. Schmeizel, and was given away by her mother. She wore a of that portion of the male population gown of soft white satin made with a which by reason of the ages represented given away by her mother. She work a gown of soft white satin made with a which by reason of the ages represent to the court train and her tulle veil was held ton. The only effective way to correct tion. The only effective way to correct the court of the ages represent to with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia and white roses. There were no bridal attendants. Walter T. Henry of Philadelphia was best man and the ushers were William R. Duffell, Edward T. Effert and Herman Weihman of Philadelphia, William R. McLaughlin of Canada and James H.

Schmelzel, Jr., of this city. A reception followed at the Plaza. Mr. Welhman served during the war with the 315th Infantry, Company K, in France. After their wedding trip he and his bride will live at the Apthorp, this city.

COOK-HERRICK.

ding Gown at Ceremony.

Miss Louise Moore Herrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hicks Herrick of 35 East Thirtieth street, was married to John Alden Cook of this city yesterday afternoon in the Centennial Chapel of St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Karl Reiland, rector.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore her grandmother's wedding gown of white satin and a veil of point ace. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Margaret Herrick, who wore a costume of blue taffeta and georgette crepe and a hat of bronze tulle trimmed with brown feathers. She carried a bouquet nately, whitney, Payne Whitney, alterMrs. Luther Kountze, George D. Pratt, odd Mondays, opening night; N.

F. Brady, even Mondays; De Lancey
Kountze, odd Wednesdays; E. S. Harkness, even Wednesdays; Herman D.
Kountze, odd Thursdays; Mrs. Ward
Douglas, odd Fridays.
Mrs. James B. Haggin, odd Mondays, opening night; John Aspegron, even Mondays; Charles M. MacNell, odd Thursdays; John D. Ryan, odd Fridays.
Grand Tier Box Mold. of bronze chrysanthemums. Thomas Cook was best man for his brother, and Field Artillery. After their wedding trip he and his bride will live in this

NASSOIT-HECKMANN.

Dinner and Dance Follows Wed

Miss Eleanor M. Heckmann, daughter where they have a summer place. A of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heckmann of 250 West 104th street, was married to Harry B. Nassolt, son of Mrs. Henry Nassolt of this city, last evening at the Plaza by the Rev. Willard F. Otterson. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white georgette crepe trimmed with crystal beads. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Carbille R. Wagner, who wore a costume of gold colored velyet and carried a boulter. At the present time he is a respect to the summer place. A from end to end and failed to find a single telltale. But they have hired their own detectives to find out who is shadowing them. They are convinced that their telephone wires have been tapped as a private and served overseas with the headquarters of the Twenty-seventh only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Carbille R. Wagner, who were a costume of gold colored velyet and carried a boulter. the Rev. Willard F. Otterson. The son, odd Wednesdays; Rollin P. Grant, bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white georgette. B. Boardman, Wednesdays; Warren E. B. Boardman, Wednesdays; Warren E. Burns, Fridays; Willard A. Walsh, Fridays; Warren E. Boardman, Wednesdays; Warren E. Boardman, Wednesdays; Warren E. B. Warren With

Broughton-Fish.

Special Despotch to THE SUN. Boston, Nov. 8.—At Rye Beach, N. H., he home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Fish, Miss Agnes spring. Chency Fish was married to-day to Philip Folsom Broughton in the presence members of both families. The bride is the youngest of three daughters. The bridegroom is the second son of Dr. Henry Broughton of Jamalca Plains.

Miss Irene R. Juster, oldest daughter f Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Juster of amaica, and Lieut. James A. Reardon of St. Louis, were married yesterday in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Ja-maica, by the Rev. Richard A. Schenck. After a wedding breakfast Lieut, and Mrs. Reardon left for a trip to Wash-

Carr-De Graff.

Miss Eleanore Maitland DeGraff faughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. De-Graff of Plainfield, N. J., was married yesterday to Dr. Frank Clyde Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Carr of New York. The coremony took place at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Doria Marie Bomann was the bride's at-tendant, and Dr. Charles Carr, brother of the bridegroom, was best man,

Chase-Rodgers.

Special Despatch to Tun Sun. Boston, Nov. 8 .- Miss Nancy Rodgers, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Rodgers and the late Capt. John W Rodgers, of England was married this afternoon to Russell Price Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Chase of Mei-

Saturday Shows Largest Gains in Week's Drive for

Says Biggest Field for Organization Lies in America

Yesterday was the biggest day so far in the Red Cross roll call here. Each succeeding day in the drive for 1,000,000 Countess di Cellere Will Sail for members in Greater New York, which Parterie Boxes.

Special Despotes to Ten Sun.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Countess di
Cellere, widow of the late Italian Ambasderbilit, alternately; Mrs. E. ReeveMerritt, Wednesdays.
George Peabody Wetnore, Mrs. Harold
Brown, alternately; Mrs. J. Ellis
Flaher, odd Mondays, opening night;
Mrs. Using Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilit, alternately; Mrs. E. Reevesador, and her two children will sait from New York on Tuesday on the Regina d'Italia for home. They will be accompanied by the former naval atache of the embassy, Rear Admiral M.
Lovatelli. Capt. P. Civalleri, R. I. N., has arrived in Washington and assumed his duties as naval attache.

Willard Straight, Mrs. E. H. Har.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Countess di
fuellere, widow of the late Italian Ambassador, and her two children will sait just doubled the returns for the preceding day, it was said at the headquarters of the metropolitan committee.
It was intimated that the donors who made yesterday's successes possible were again to be found in the financial district.

Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, leader of the Twenty-seventh Division and chairman for the Atlantia division in the athird roll call, said yesterday:

"The Red Cross effort in the war is produced and will continue until armistice day. November 11, has just doubled the returns for the preceding day, it was said at the headquarters of the metropolitan committee.

It was intimated that the donors who
made yesterday's successes possible were
again to be found in the financial district.

Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, leader of the Twenty-seventh Division and chairman for the Atlantia division in the athird roll call, said yesterday:

"The Red Cross effort in the war is plant developed and Mrs. Leansing the Arstream of the metropolitan committee.

It was intimated that the donors who
made yesterday's successes possible were
again to be found in the financial district.

Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, leader of the Twenty-seventh Division and the trict.

Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, leader of the Twent

not over nor can it be discontinued for some time. I think the biggest field for Red Cross work lies in the future and embraces a considerable por-tion of our own population."

The General cited instances of Red Cross educational work in Serbia and Siberia, where the children are not only being taught but clothed and fed as well. The Red Cross is one of the most active agencies in the fight against trabus whose successions of the contractive agencies in the fight against trabus whose successions. typhus, whose ravages in parts of Europe have been hardly less severe than the destruction wrought by invading armies. In the ægean in the past five months the Red Cross has saved more than 50,000 lives by the distribution of food and clothing, according to a public statement by the Governor of Mace-

"Great as is our sympathy for the sufferings of Europe," the General's statement continues, "we are necessarily nue and Eighty-second street, yesterday it is this field which will furnish the afternoon Miss Martha Emmons, daughter of Mrs. Francis Robbies Emmons greatest opportunity for the peace time effort of the American Red Cross, The of those liable for the draft, 35 per cent. were unfit physically. That means 35 tion composed like the American Red Cross, of the people themselves.

"The strength of the Red Cross is in its membership, for it is this great membership which maintains it as a living force, as a body that understands suffering and with an intelligence and a spirit that do not tolerate the excuses and delays that so frequently characterize strictly official effort."

Archbishop Hayes gave his vigorous indorsement of the drive in a statement in which he said: "It is both an American and a Christian duty to support the

The campaign in this city will end Tuesday with the "Battle of Manhat-tan." Five infantry regiments of the New York Guard will cover the metropclis with a barrage of appeals for the Red Cross. The "battle" will terminate in the theatrical district just about the time that the playhouses close after the Twenty-seventh Division, A. E. F., will have general charge of the service, which will be preceded by a parade.

C. VANDERBILT, JR., TO WED IN SPRING

Engagement to Miss Rachael Littleton Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Littleton made formal announcement yesterday of the engagement of their sister, Miss Rachael Littleton, to Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., only son of Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. A premature announcement of the engagement was made without consent of either family the wedding, it will take place next

TO IMPROVE DOVER HARBOR,

87,500,000 Will Be Expended or Wet Dock and Quay.

Special Correspondence to THE SCN.
LONDON, Oct. 24.—Expenditures of about $7,590,000 to make the harbor at Dover more efficient and complete are under consideration by the Dover Har-bor Board. The tidal harbor is to be converted into a wet dock, and a quay. varehouse accommodations and railway facilities are to be provided. Provision also is to be made for a ding and filling station, ships may be supplied with fuel oil.

BRIARCLIFF"

the WATER which reaches your home no older than the average bottle of milk-that's why it is so different.

Briarcliff Table Water 402 Madison Avenue Phone 7070 Murray Hi'l

SWANN IN DRIVE ON TICKET PIRATES

RED CROSS HERE Managers and Magistrate Called to Conference.

Attorney in charge of the prosecution of violators of the city ordinance on heatre tieket speculation, announced yesterday that District Attorney Swann has called a conference for Tuesday afternoon with the producing managers. the Commissioner of Licenses and Chief Magistrate McAdoo for a discussion of speculation can be further abated. Mr. Kilroe, on behalf of his chief, entered a denial to the charges made several days ago by William A. Brady, in which the responsibility for a lack of enforcement of the ordinance is put at the door of the District Attorney's along the waterfront of Manhattan and office. Mr. Kilroe denied also that either cities of New Jersey, halted traffic on he or Mr. Swann have been in receipt of the Eric ferry at Chambers street durany letters of complaint in the matter ing the morning rush hours and did purporting to have issued from several other damage yesterday. theatrical managers, as was claimel in Mr. Brady's statement. The arrests and convictions of from sixty to seventy speculators since the enactment of was as wet as in the days when the ordinance were cited by Mr. Kilroe as evidence of the fact that the District Attorney's office has been very much on the job. atrical producers themselves could do the other side of the river, where the much in the way of regulating ticket tide had flooded the piers to such an way into the hands of speculators. He promised vigorous prosecutions of all speculators who are found to be chargalso that he intends to ask that the ordinance be amended so that the License Commissioner will be given power to revoke or suspend the licenses of ticket agents.

VICE WILL O' WISPS

They Are "Slippery Septimus' and "Vice Trust Vincent" to Wise Ones.

added to the gossip about the Criminal Courts Building in connection with the last known point of departure some- reported to the police. where between the accusation of Mayor Hylan that the Interborough and its employees conspired to get an eight cent fare and the Grand Jury's own assertion to Gov. Smith that it had discovered an "overshadowing crime."

"Slippery Septimus" and "Vice Trust Vincent" are as yet but the whispers of two names. None of the wise about the Criminal Courts Building will tell who in the theatrical district just about the time that the playhouses close after the evening performances.

A memorial service to the men of New York who were killed in the war will be shadow showed. For an instant he saw beld this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory. Chaplain William E. McCord, senior chaplain.

the stranger vanished. e stranger vanished.
"Slippery Septimus" and "Vice 7'rust Mmes. Farrar and Delaunois Vincent" began to seem like a definite Messra Martinelli, Couzinciue. But with the first direct effort to thier; Saturday matinee, ceased to exist. James E. Smith who cut that film.

"Who are 'Slippery Septimus' and 'Vice Trust Vincent'?" he was asked, and then his questioner was frozen to the spot. It was another one of those terrible freezes to which reporters are frequently subjected but to which they never become hardened.

Jim Smith's cigar rolled belligerently from side to side. His snappy brown eyes snapped with righteous rage. His fair curls rose upon his fine head like the hackles of a collie dog sighting the wolf who menaces the fold whose safety about three weeks ago and before Gen. Is one with a collie's honor. No words Vanderbilt had returned from Europe. about three weeks ago and before deliabout three weeks ago and th of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Little-ton of Chattanooga, Tenn. She has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Miss Eleanor M. Heckmann, daughter where they have a summer place. A from end to end and failed to find a sin-

'overshadowing crime."

FLOOD TIDE AGAIN HITS WATERFRONT

Edwin P. Kiiroe, Assistant District Edge of Manhattan Feels Effeet of Sudden Inrush of Ocean.

ERIE FERRY IS HALTED

means whereby the "nulsance" of ticket Tube Station Across River Saved by Barricade of Sandbags.

> Another "flood" tide inundated cellars From various places along West street and along the Jersey shore came tales of woe, and at least one saloo that at West and Desbrosses street, news that William Jennings Bryan had predicted a dry nation within ten years was something to laugh joyously about The trouble on the Eric line was not Mr. Swann said last night that the- at Chambers street, but at the slips on speculation, pointing out that with "due extent that the ferryboats didn't beg'n diligence" tickets would not find their to go inland far enough. Manhattan's principal public casualty was the retire-ment from action of the Grand street surface cars, which, ordinarily run to ing above the 50 cent margin permitted the ferry house. The cars were stopped under the ordinance, saying that in fu-ture he will insist upon prison sentences not dependent on the slot in the street for all convictions. Mr. Swann states bravely waddled all the way to the ferry. At some points near West and Barclay streets the water was more than a foot deep in the middle of the street, and between Murray street and Park place it rose over the sidewalk.

On the East Side cellars near Fulton on the East Side cellars near Fulton street were flooded, and water also poured into the cellar of the Old Slip police station. The basement and engine room of the Broad Street Hospital required the services of a pump to make it habitable. it habitable.

Over in Jersey City the water reached the entrance of the tube station, but a sandbag barricade prevented it from entering. The water covered the waiting room floor to a depth of five inches and covered the tracks in the railroad terminal so that commuters frequently left by the rear of trains. Boats of the Pennsylvania, West Shore and Jersey Central railroads ran on schedule.
In Brooklyn the tide at Newtown

Creek and Wallabout Creek rose as high Vincent" are the latest names to be as on Friday, and while the docks seemed for a time in danger of being looded, the tide ebbed grudgingly in time to save them. Tugboats investigation of the city government by above their accustomed altitudes. Down the extraordinary Grand Jury, which be- at Coney Island the high tide looked gan with anarchists, went through milk and now is pursuing its career from a damage to buildings along the beach was

OPERA REPERTORY ANNOUNCED

tor for Metropolitan.

they are. Though all the wise profess singers and a new French conductor to know. will make their first appearances with Yesterday a man who had been a witness before the Grand Jury was sus surating the mysterious names close to one of those ground glass partitions with which the Criminal Courts Building week will be as softows:

Wandard Townson Who had been a will make their first appearance will be company and Halevy's "La Julve." with scenery by Joseph Urban, will be given for the first time in the Metropolitan Opera House. The operas for the week will be as softows:

Wandard Townson Will make their first appearance will be a softown.

second shocked surprise-and then Rosing) and Messrs. Hackett, Amat-Martinelli, Couzinou and Ro find out what they were the two names with Mmes. Ponselle, Scitney (debut) and Messrs Caruso, Harrold (debut) It was Assistant District Attorney Chalmers and Rothier; Saturday even-

SILVERMAN TO PAY ALIMONY. Denies Wife's Charge He Lavished

Affection on Another. Mrs. Rosa L. Silverman, who resides at 150 West Eighty-seventh street, was awarded $400 a month alimony yester pending the trial of her separation ac-

ion. She is suing Robert M. Silverman In her affidavit upon the alimony motion Mr. Silverman said that her hus-Wall Street deals and that he is worth he had greatly exaggerated his winnings and property. He denied her as-sertions that he had lavished affection and money on one Rose Fishel and Miss Fishel corroborated him in another affi-harges of cruelty. He said she had a Before shricking, he added, she nade a point" of opening the windows and doors so that the neighbors might hear her.

Co. D of 308th Plans Reunion.

Members of Company D, 308th Infantry, which had a high percentage of casualties as a result of its service in who never married. The Commodore's son William H. Vanderbilt had a son Cornelius, who died twenty years ago, and Brig.-Gen. Vanderbilt, who is one of the sons of that Cornelius Vanderbilt, was named after his father.

While no date has been mentioned for the sons of the Grand Jury who were empanelled and so interesting has become the line and so interesting has become the line the last four months of the war, are to hold their first reunion next Saturday night in the Twenty-second Regiment Armory, 188th street and Washington avenue. The affair is being arranged by Sergeant William Tighe and all former members are asked to send their names. of investigation that these men have members are asked to send their names given assurance that they will willingly to him at 55 West 165th street. Fewer give all the time necessary from their than 18 per cent. of the original mem-business affairs to the pursuit of the bers of the company were in its ranks when it was mustered out.

Stern Brothers

West 42d Street Between 5th and 6th Avenues

A Specially Prepared Sale To-morrow

Women's and Misses'

Luxurious Evening Wraps

Of Fashionable Metal Brocade

$195.00

Regularly sold at $295.00

ATTRACTIVE NEW EVENING WRAPS—Extremely smart; featuring the new silhouette with large draped collar and deep cuffs of Australian Opossum, Taupe Nutria and Hudson Seal (Dyed Muskrat), Pussy Willow silk lined; in Black and Gold, Green and Silver, Purple and Gold, Sapphire, Magenta and Gold, Blue and Silver, or Black and Silver.

Misses' Fur-Trimmed Suits

Featuring Belted or Ripple Models

$52.00 Regularly $75.00

Fashioned in Yalama Cloth with Fur-trimmed Collar of Taupe Nutria; lined with figured Pussy Willow Silks; tailoring and finishing details are superior. Colors: Brown, Henna, Navy Blue and Black. Sizes 14, 16 and 18.

Other Models, including Foreign and Domestic Styles

$34.75 to 375.00

Women's Winter Apparel

Remarkable Offerings in Evening Gowns and Suits for Formal and Informal Occasions.

Gowns for Formal Occasions $39.50 to 375.00 MODELS suitable for Opera, Horse Show, Theatre or Restaurant; developed in richest fabrics, including Net, with metal brocade bodice; Taffeta, with floral or feather trimmings; Chiffon Velvet, with metal lace. and handsome Net with Spangles. Most attractive colorings.

Frocks for Afternoon and Street Wear

Developed in Satin Brocade, Chiffon Velvet, Beaded Georgette Crepe, Tricollette and Duvetyne.

Plain Tailored and Dressy Suits $37.50 to 475.00

For Street, Sport, Traveling or Calling; developed in Duvetyne, Serge, Jersey, Velveteen, Velvet or combination effects; many novelties featured in pockets, belts and collars; all desirable colorings represented.

Attractive Separate Skirts $7.75 to $69.50

Developed in Serge, Satin, Tricotine, Velveteen and Wool Plaid materials. Plain or Dressy Models.

Fashionable Winter Furs

Attractively priced for Monday

Natural Otter Coats—Smart 30 inch model; selected; perfectly matched skins; nutria trimmed; belted,

$295.00

Hudson Seal Coats (Dyed Muskrat) Three-quarter length model; deep self collar and cuff; belted; Pussy Willow linings; attractively priced at $385.00

Natural Squirrel Coats, new model of unusual attractiveness; Dark Grey skins; 30 inches long; belted,

$445.00

Scotch Mole Coats-Chic model of selected peltries; soft and full furred.

Hudson Bay Beaver Coats-Especially selected medium weight peltries

$395.00

of exceptional silkiness; regulation or bell shaped sleeves, $445.00

Natural Mink Coats, 30 in. model:

Dark silky skins; full flare; deep shawl collar and cuffs; belted,

$595.00

Rich Fur Scarfs and Muffs

SCARFS		MUFFS
	57.50Skunk
$35.00 and	69.50Natural Squirrel	$52.50 and 65.00	)
$48.50 and	65.00 Beaver	$52.50 and 67.50	)
$32.50 and	47.50 Dyed Wolf	$32.50 and 39.50	)
	42.50 Raccoon
$18.50 and	21.50 Nutria	$14.50 and 24.50	)